MISSIONARIES TO ITALY

The Boehm to Italy

Prayer Requests

More Gospel-opportunities with our neighbors and that God would convict their hearts and save their souls. Some that we have very regular contact with include: Chiara, Alberto, Michela, Gino, Silvia, Felisa, Angelina, Gina, Matteo, Irene, and Simone.

Wisdom in training and teaching our children, particularly spiritually.

The Boehm to Italy

Prayer Requests

Wisdom in helping our small group of believers in this area to grow spiritually.

Our (and our kids') language learning and cultural adaptation.

The Boehm to Italy

Praises

God has given us great grace in the eyes of our neighbors, and we have easily made friends.

Our gifts fit easily in with this small church.

We have made great progress in language learning.

This is our “formal” family picture that is on our stationary, etc., but it was taken last year.

Our kids ready for church and standing in front of the building where we hold our church services (we actually only rent a small part of the building to the right of where the kids are standing).

303. Io Sento La Tua Voce

1. Io sento la tua voce —
Chiamarmi con amor;
Nel sangue della croce,
Deh, lava un peccator!
*Io vengo innanzi a Te,
Prostrandomi ai tuoi piè,
Deh! nettami, deh! lavami
Nel sangue tuo, Signor!*

3. Io Sento La Tua Voce

Io sento la tua voce —
Chiamarmi con amor;
Nel sangue della croce, —

Stephanie helps in the church ministries by playing the piano and clarinet, teaching our kids' class 2x a week, and occasionally leading the ladies' Bible study (here she is playing the clarinet in our rented room for one of our services).

The Boehms Italy

This small group is kind of our core group (give or take 1 or 2) of believers and our coworkers (the lady in the white shirt and the man wearing glasses and a tie).

Tom teaches our teens. This picture is taken in our livingroom/kitchen during his Bible lesson during one of our teen activities.

Tom plays basketball with some of the neighborhood teens as a good way to build relationships with them.

Our kids help us build relationships with the neighborhood kids and their parents. Here they are sharing their chalk.

More relationship-building with Daniela sharing her bubbles.

We spend time with our neighbors (this was a dinner when we were invited to their house) and tell them about Jesus.

A picture of the main Catholic church in our area—though there are 2 others within easy walking distance from our apartment.
